

Greetings from NITCO!

We hope that you and your loved ones are safe and healthy! We wish that these tough times are behind us soon and we come out stronger than before.

Let us give you a sense of what's coming your way from the world of NITCO...

NITCO Connect Convenience at home!

A program to help designers function from the privacy and safety of their homes. The objective of NITCO Connect is to understand your project at the design stage, with inspiration and ideas, application areas, and the emotional space you seek to create.

Our core teams that will help you are:

- Surface Designers
- Architect And Interior Team
- Product Technology Team
- Business Development Team

Not just this, our unique initiative will help you get:

1. High-resolution images of all our collections in sync with our Google Sketch Up library: www.nitco.in
2. NITCO Visualizer, a tool via which you can quickly see alternate renders according to your preference
3. Technical expertise on how to apply the products
4. Our surface suggestions

Do call Ashrunisha Shaikh on 9833905208 to set up a video consultation for you.

Enabling Interactive Training for Nepal Dealers

A "Sales Skill Enable" interactive training program conducted by NITCO, saw 50 talented dealers participating from the beautiful country of Nepal. The session included key topics like manufacturing process, types of tiles and their application, NITCO product portfolio and its USPs. This insightful training highlighted how to ensure a successful sales pitch and the dos & don'ts while laying tiles.
